ANSWER OF RESPONDENT, BRAKE AND KEESEY, INC. TO BILL OF COMPLAINT TO FORCLOSE ALL RIGHTS OF REDEMPTION OF PROPERTY SOLD AT TAX SALE

Comes now the Respondent, Brake and Keesey, Inc., by and through its attorney, James F. Martin, in answer to the Bill of Complaint filed in these proceedings, and says:

- 1. That it admits the allegations of the First Paragraph of said Bill.
- 2. That it admits the allegations of the Second Paragraph of said Bill.
- 3. That it admits the allegations of the Third Paragraph of said Bill.
- 4. That it is without knowledge of the Fourth Paragraph of said Bill.
- 5. That it admits the allegations of the Fifth Paragraph of said Bill.
- 6. That it admits the allegations of the Sixth Paragraph of said Bill.
- 7. That it admits the allegations of the Seventh Paragraph of said Bill.
- 8. And further answering, that it is ready, willing and able to redeem the property by the payment to the Treasurer of Frederick County all taxes,
